Ludlow, on Eighteenth street. A corner of the barn was saturated with coal oil, but it was happily discovered before it was ignited. The police are investigating the matter. Watson B. Smith, clerk of the United States circuit court, has presented the Y. M. C. A. with a handsome library case. The work of filling the same will commence at once, and donations of books will be thankfully received. A report appearing in one of our weekly city papers to the effect that the Millard's were contemplating the erection of a large hotel in this city, a Bee reporter investigated the matter Saturday, and was informed by Mr. J. H. Millard that he had no such plan in contemplation, and the intelligence was a complete surprise to him. John Smith, a "Cranky Bill," once the editor and proprietor of a Chicago sporting paper, The Thunderbolt, was arrested Friday night on the charge of being a tramp. He declined a jury trial, and will be sentenced this afternoon. He will plead his own case. Pat. O. Hawes contains pictures preferring a charge of insanity against this man. A fourteen year old girl, daughter of Mrs. Hansen, the poor woman, another of whose children died on Tuesday, an account of which was published in the Bee, died Friday and was buried by undertaker Jacobs at two this afternoon. This makes the third child she has lost during two weeks. The family are in destitute circumstances and their needs should be the object of some philanthropic gentleman's charity. A Bee reporter learned Friday afternoon, too late for publication, that the results of the railroad conference of yesterday in this city, which was held to amicably settle matters of difference between the U. P. and C. & N. W. companies in regard to freight rates, were perfectly satisfactory, the rates being restored to the old figure. The conference adjourned and the officials returned home over the Chicago & Northwestern Friday evening. The Lincoln Journal thinks that the end of the "Lady Lightfoot" race is not yet, and that the owner will be prosecuted for cruelty to animals. Sheriff Guy was called upon by Mr. Young a few hours previous to the race and questioned as to the rumored report that he (the sheriff) intended to interfere should the proposed race be attempted. The sheriff replied that inasmuch as the feat contemplated was no unusual one, and with the supposition that the animal during the ten mile run would be occasionally watered and sponged and well cared for, he could find no legal grounds for interference. Police Court items. Julius Ross, saloon keeper, charged by the police with violating the city ordinance regulating the closing of saloons at midnight, was before his honor this morning. Time was requested by defendant for the purpose of procuring witnesses. The trial was postponed until Monday. The case of the City of Omaha vs. Bernard Lange, charged with selling liquor to minors, was postponed till July 2. One plain drunk pleaded guilty and paid his fine of $3.00 and costs. Three men out of employment and with no visible means of support, were committed in default of payment of fine. For contempt of court during this morning's session, a German wagonmaker was committed to jail. American seamless Kid Gloves No pinching between fingers. BOREAS ON A BENDER.

The Gale of Saturday Night Leaves Wreck and Ruin in Its Wake. The New Catholic Convent in this City Completely Demolished. Dwelling Houses, Chimneys, Fences, Etc., are Prostrated by Its Fury. At an early hour on Saturday evening a strong wind from the northwest struck this city. The storm was accompanied by a drenching rain, which fell until a late hour in the night. People who witnessed the storm from their windows failed to realize its fury and velocity, and will no doubt be surprised to learn of the damage done in various parts of the city. During the heaviest part of the storm the wind gauge at the signal office registered over sixty miles per hour. The most lamentable freak of the wind was the demolishing of the new Catholic convent, situated on the highest portion of Shiloh's addition, in the northwest suburbs of the city. A strange fatality seems to have overtaken the attempt to erect a convent in that neighborhood. It will be remembered by our citizens that during the storm that visited this section two weeks ago a large portion of the structure was laid low and confusion made of the wood work at that time completed. But this time the destruction of the building is complete. The north wall had been rebuilt, and all the damage by the former storm repaired. Saturday evening, about half past eight, a terrible crash made known to the residents in the vicinity the total demolition of the edifice. All that remains of the four walls above the basement story is a pier about ten feet high about midway on the north wall and a similar one at the southeast corner. Most of the wood work—joists, rafters, window frame, etc.—was blown into the basement, over the east wall, and broken and shivered into a thousand fragments. Boards were blown fifty two blocks away. Stone window caps and sills were hurled fifty feet from the building and buried in the earth. The crash made was so loud as to be heard by parties residing on the corner of Twentieth and Cuming streets, half a mile distant. The building was 44 by 68 feet in dimensions, and the walls 18 inches at the base and 10 in the second and third stories. The rafters for the gable roof had been put in place, but no shoring had been laid. In reply to an inquiry of a Bee reporter, a member of the firm of I. T. & B. Bros., the brick contractors, who were found among the crowd of spectators, who were viewing the wreck yesterday, said: "It is impossible to estimate the loss. We had just completed the brick work, and nothing but the plastering remained to be done before turning the building over to the owners. "What was the contract price of your work?" our reporter asked. "Forty-four hundred dollars. It will cost much more to rebuild, because of having to remove the debris before work can be begun. "Will the I. T. & B. be compelled to sustain the loss?" "I am unable to say at this time. We repaired the first damage to the north wall at our own expense. It cost us about $600." Mr. Roschberry has the carpenter's contract, and his loss by the first brick is estimated at over $100. The reporter did not see him and could not get his opinion as to whether he would have to sustain the second loss. It is understood that if the convent is rebuilt, its dimensions will be somewhat altered, and that the facade will be longer, and consequently offer a more effective resistance to future wind storms. TWO DWELLING HOUSES, near the corner of Tenth street and Capitol Avenue, were toppled over early in the evening. One of the buildings had been completed but a short time. Other old structures in the neighborhood which look as if they would cave in some day of general debility, weathered the blast and will still stand till the last, no doubt. ANOTHER DWELLING house near the corner of Thirteenth and Pacific streets, was blown from its foundation. A WIND MILL belonging to Itiner Bros., which stood upon their brick yard in the north part of town, got more of a breeze than it could wrestle with and came down with a crash. OTHER DAMAGE. A broken window in the grocery establishment of J. H. Spelman, corner of Twelfth and Douglas streets, was blown in, and quite an amount of goods damaged. Several of the circus bill boards in the various parts of the city, were laid flat and the giant, the kangaroo and the "man with the iron jaw," were mingled into one. A large tree which has flourished for many a year in front of a dwelling house near the corner of Izard and Seventeenth streets, was blown down; it fell in such a manner as to effectually barricade the front door of the building. The street lamp which shed its feeble rays about the corner of Capitol Avenue and Seventeenth streets was blown off its post. It was probably making light of the elements. The front part of a frame building on the north side of Douglas street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, was blown down with a loud crash. The breeze seems to have a weakness for signs and awnings, and quite a number of both were "kissed by the gentle zephyrs." THE TELEPHONE SYSTEM was completely demoralized and a

MUSIC IN THE AIR.

Last Evening's Round of Amusement. As if to recompense the public for what they may have lost by the dearth of musical and other entertainments in the city for a month past, last evening a perfect avalanche of gaiety was launched at the public. AT THE HIGH SCHOOL. The high school literary society held its first annual exhibition Friday evening. The room was well filled and the audience was an appreciative one. After opening the meeting, the president, Mr. Al. Leffing, briefly stated the history of the association and its objects, paying a few words of tribute to its founders and promoters. The following programme was then given with success: Address by the president, Piano solo—Clara Rosier. Declaration—"The Bumbast Woman's Story," by Rachel Goldsmith. Essay—"Boys," by Alfred Kennedy. Solo—Lizette Sharp. Declaration—"The Jack of Diamonds," by J. W. Cummings. Reading—"What would you do if you were shut up alone in a tower with a baby," by Will Cummings. Reading—"The Jack of Diamonds," by J. W. Cummings. Reading—"The Jack of Diamonds," by J. W. Cummings. Piano Solo—Jettie Hurlbert. Declaration—"The Jack of Diamonds," by J. W. Cummings. Reading—"The Irish Letter," by Joie McGee. Solo—Cora Cummings. Debate on the question—"Resolved, That Little girls deserve more credit for establishing it." Particularly noticed the piano solo by Miss Rosier, the recitation by Mrs. G. Hamill; the solo by Caldwell, who was honored with the only one of the evening; and the essay by Mr. Kennedy. AT BROWNELL HALL. The young ladies in Miss Butterfield's junior music class gave the third and last quarterly musicale for the scholastic year. The selections were all well performed, and to speak of one in particular would do injustice to the rest. The following was the programme, the rendition of which evinced the fact that Miss Butterfield is a thorough musician and uses the best methods of instructing her pupils: Overture—Instrumental Duet—"Callith of Bacchus," by Bouclien—Misses Clark and Wynn. Song—"Welcome Pretty Princess"—Miss Mollie Welton. Instrumental Duet—"March No. 2," by Beethoven—Misses Linaiger and Trubing. "The Blue Bird," by Van Antwerpen. Miss Anna Metz. Vocal Duet—"Two Merry Girls," by Glover—Misses J. and Maxwell. Instrumental Duet—"The Merry Band," by J. W. Cummings. Solo—"The Merry Band," by J. W. Cummings. Double Quartet—"Three Belles." THE OLD FELLOWS. The members of Omaha lodge No. 2, L. O. O. F., invited their friends to meet them at the hall last evening to participate in a short entertainment. Those who attended, and they were a goodly number, felt amply repaid for their trouble. The exercises were conducted by the medium strains of music during the intermission by the Union Pacific band. Rev. H. D. Fisher, of Salt Lake, was present and made some interesting remarks. The exercises were commenced by a few introductory remarks by Judge Peabody, delivered in his usual humorous style, after which the following programme was given: Music—U. P. Band. Recitation—"The Plow Boy," by Eddie Riley. Recitation—"The Old Oaken Bucket," by Miss Daisy Whitehouse. Music—U. P. Band. Instrumental Quartet—"The Big Four," recitation—Mr. Sol. Prince. Music—U. P. Band. Recitation—"The Scarecrow," by Miss Daisy Whitehouse. Music—U. P. Band. Declaration—"Spartacus," by Mr. Delos Beard. Recitation—"The Golden Ladder," by Miss Nellie Riley. Music—U. P. Band. Recitation—"Boys Little Fingers," by Miss Minnie Riley. When the programme was about half concluded, refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were passed around. The management of the affair spared no efforts to make it a success. BUSY BEES. The "Busy Bees" of the Christian church had a pleasant gathering at that place Friday evening. The programme was excellent, and the occasion one of great enjoyment. DIED. SWIFT—In this city, Saturday morning, June 5, Helen, wife of John Swift and mother of Thomas, Michael and Patrick Swift, of this city, at the age of 68. Funeral services will be held at the Catholic cathedral Monday morning at 9:30, where high mass will be celebrated. Knights of the Diamond. At the office of M. D. Hyde, last evening, a meeting was held by the directors of the amateur ball league. The resignation of the secretary, Mr. C. J. Smyth, was accepted. Mr. Franzen, of the Croughnion university base ball club, was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Smyth. The game will be played this afternoon at the north end of Eighteenth street. The Catholic Library. The new Catholic library association held an adjourned meeting Friday night at which various business in the way of committee reports, etc., was transacted. The library committee reported that they had secured much of the necessary furniture for the rooms, and hoped to obtain the balance by next week. The board of managers has secured the services of Miss Stacia Crowley as librarian. After transacting other business the meeting adjourned to meet next Friday. Best board in the city, at Tiard's.

Fast Becoming the Leading Dry Goods Chicago Between Chicago and San Francisco. For the past three years we have endeavored to prove to the people of Omaha and the west that fine goods can be sold much cheaper on Tenth street than on the more fashionable avenues of trade. Occupying the same room in which we started a business, since increased four-fold, it must be evident to our readers that with a stock of goods selected in the leading markets of the Far East—in most instances bought from manufacturer's agents and invariably paid for cash down, thereby securing to us large discounts, in themselves a profit—we can undersell any legitimate competitor at home or abroad. We are offering bargains in HOSIERY, DRESS GOODS, SILK, CORSETS, ETC. Ladies' Seamless Balbriggan Hose, plain or silk clocked, at 25c; the best made in town for the money. Over fifty styles ladies' plain and fancy colored hose, marked down to 50c; not a pair of these sold for less than 65c, some as high as $1.50. Early selections will secure the best bargains. For Summer Wear, We offer Fine Seamless Balbriggan Hose, very light, durable and elastic, for 60c; worth 75c. Fine light Ladies Thread Hose at $1.00; worth $1.25. Plain and fancy Colored Cotton and Lisle Thread Hose from $1.00 to $3.50 a pair. The best assortment in town. Reduction in Children's Hose. To close our spring stock we offer a large assortment of Children's Hose, at about half price. Ladies' Lace Mitts. Here we show one of the finest stocks in the country, and offer ninety styles, plain black or white, pink, eryle, blue, lavender mitts, without, with half, or full fingers, from 25c to $2.00 a pair. Ladies' Lace Lisle, Plain Lisle and Silk Tulle Gloves, a large assortment, from two to six buttons. New Fans, new Parasols, fully 10 per cent. less than up-town prices for the same qualities. JUST RECEIVED. Cameli's Hair Grenadines. Satin Stripe Grenadines. Lace Grenadines. An elegant assortment of pure linen airm lains, just opened. Black Silks. For summer wear we offer a line of light-weight, fine quality, Calumet, French grain-silk silks, at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.65. New Embroideries. We have just received a new line of fine French embroideries, good work on fine French network, and offer them at the trade as being the best values ever shown in Omaha. White Lingerie 84c, 10c, 12 1/2c, up to 70c. French Goggles, plain and dotted Swiss, India Mulls, lace, check and stripe networks, fine Victoria Laines, from 10c to 90c a yard; all our summer white goods are new, fresh, clean and desirable; we have many fine goods in Mulls and Laines not to be found elsewhere in Omaha. PARASOLS, UMBRELLAS. We offer special bargains in extra large 24 inch Silk Sun Umbrellas, all this season's goods, from 85c to $6.00. Ladies' and Children's gauze underwear. Ladies' Gauze Vests, all sizes, 28 to 36 inches, only 25c. Best qualities 50c and 60c. Child's Gauze Vest, 15c to 30c. Gents' Unadorned Shirts—Down They Go. At 50c a shirt worth that at wholesale to day—linen bosom, linen cuffs, muslin worth 10c a yard. At 75c a shirt worth $1.00. At 90c a better shirt than is sold up town for $1.00. (We warrant this.) We were obliged to make the above reductions because we have received a new $1.00 shirt, made of Wamatta muslin, of the finest linen bosom and cuffs, and With a Reinforced Front. Up-town dealers are to-day selling a poorer shirt at $1.25. Gents' apron, or superlute, British Half-Hose, unbleached or colored, reduced to 25c, worth and sold for 35c elsewhere. Full lines of cheaper goods from 15c to 15c, and all the best qualities of Lisle and Cotton Half-Hose, up to the best goods made. Gents' Summer Under-shirts at 25c, 35c, 40c, 50c, 75c. All less than last year. An efficient corps of polite clerks will at any time be pleased to show our really elegant stock to customers who wish to examine our stock. Up-town cars pass our doors. Samples sent on application. S. P. MORSE & CO. Bradbury-Indestructible. The wedding of Hospital Steward F. A. Bradbury and Mrs. Annie Lindstrom took place at Fort Omaha Friday evening, the chaplain of the post officiating. The couple started east on a wedding tour to New York, to-day, where Mr. Bradbury has been assigned for duty. A Good Work. The fire boys are circulating a subscription paper among the different companies to raise money to send Mr. Edward Welch, engineer of No. 3, to the Hot Springs (Ark.) Mr. Welch has been in poor health for some time past, and it is thought that the treatment given at the Springs will restore his health. Over $100 was subscribed yesterday among the firemen, who are always ready to befriend their comrades when in need. Mr. Welch will call a leave of absence at the next meeting of the city council, and will likely start for the South next Wednesday. MISSING.—A case of constipation by using Hamburg Figs. WHOSTRUCK PETE MARTIN?

The Parties Accused Prove an Alibi and are Dismissed. For some time past a number of neighborhood rows have occurred in the southern suburbs of this city. Numerous complaints and counter complaints have been made against certain parties of that vicinity. Saturday morning an old man, Pet- r Martin by name, bearing evidence of having received at the hands of some dastardly villain, a terrible beating, appeared before the police court to sustain his charges against one Warren Reed and a German lad, whose name is also Peter Martin. The complainant was accompanied by his wife, a cripple. Warren Reed, defendant, was present, accompanied by his wife and another lady. Peter Martin, defendant, accompanied by his father and mother, was also on hand. It seems that Friday some high words were exchanged between the complainant and Mr. Reed in regard to a cow that Martin had impounded, and that during the night complainant hearing a noise as if a fence being torn down, hastened off to his coral, lantern in hand. He had not proceeded far when he was struck in several places by clouds of dirt and his lantern smashed and extinguished. Being on his oath he swore that before the light was extinguished he recognized his assailants in the persons of Warren Reed and the lad Peter Martin. Complainant further swore that after having fired the volley of clouds the two rushed upon him and beat and kicked him about the face and body until he was helpless. The complainant's wife being sworn testified that she recognized the voice of Warren Reed as the one who had heard abusing her husband in violent language after he had left the house with his lantern. The defendants' attempts to prove an alibi by the testimony of several witnesses were successful and sustained by the ruling of the court. The case was dismissed without costs. Mr. Martin bears the evidence of having been terribly maltreated, and it will be some time before he recovers from the effects. Whoever the party or parties may be they deserve the full extent of the penalty. FIREMAN SCARED. During Saturday night's storm the fireman at No. 1 Evington house entertained very grave apprehensions for the safety of the old shell. About 8 o'clock it swung to and fro at a rate that the front doors were blown open and cranked and groaned as though they were about to fly their hinges. The men, who sleep in the second story, were afraid to go to bed, and some of them got into the hay mow of the barn in the rear of the engine house, in the attempt to atal a few hours of sleep. The plastering was cracked in every room and the cornice on the west side was blown off. It is high time the city authorities do something to strengthen this building, as it has been unsafe for a long time. A few dollars applied where it is so badly needed will save the city the total loss of the house and apparatus, and perhaps the lives of the men and horses. "Lano" Linked. T. W. Blackburn, well known to the public under the pseudonym of "Lano," and who has been until recently chief editor of The Republican, lately head of the advertising bureau of the Kansas Pacific railroad, and now connected with the literary bureau of the Union Pacific railroad, was married on Friday at Peru to Miss Sue Pritchard, of that place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Blackburn, father of the groom, at 11:30 Friday morning. Mr. Frank M. Hall, of Lincoln, was the groom's "best man," and Miss Annie L. Reid, of Hamburg, Iowa, bridesmaid, both of whom were schoolmates of the bride and groom. The party took the evening train for Omaha, arriving here Friday evening. They will reside at 1805 Farnham street. Mr. Blackburn has had a long and honorable connection with Nebraska journalism and holds his present position in virtue of sterling ability and untiring industry. His many friends in Omaha and throughout the state will unite with Mrs. Bze in wishing him and his estimable bride a long, happy and useful married life. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Major Nickerson is off to Washington. B. H. Dear, of Des Moines, is in town. Jay Northrop has returned from Chicago. Mr. B. H. Robertson, of Tokamah, is in the city. Dr. Deane returned Friday evening from Kearney. J. E. Johnson, of Osceola, is visiting the metropolis. Mr. Geo. Zanner and wife (arrived in the city Friday evening. Prof. Collyer, of Lincoln, went west to California Saturday. C. W. Mead, of the smelting works, returned from the east Saturday. Messrs. W. W. Ford, L. Ulrich and J. B. Taylor, of New York, are visiting the city. Mr. Geo. Holdridge, assistant superintendent of the Nebraska divisions of the C. B. & Q., went to Boston Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Bob Brimmer, who has just concluded successful engagements at the Palace and St. Elmo theatres in this city will leave for Kansas City in a few days accompanied by his wife, known on the bills as Miss Nellie Brimmer. He is under engagement with J. H. Haverly after his Kansas City dates are filled. Benj. Douglas, Esq., manager of the western district of K. G. Dun & Co.'s Mercantile Agency, and manager of the Chicago office, arrived Saturday in
